

Sessional Openings – Fall 2020/Winter 2021

Sessional Instructor: History

St. Mary's University seeks applications for a part-time instructor to teach History 301: Topics in World and Comparative History. The course is scheduled to run M/W 4:00-5:15 pm in Fall 2020. The successful candidate will have a Doctoral degree or be ABD in History and have a record of successful teaching experience in the discipline. The course has some thematic flexibility; candidates who can teach courses focusing on African or Asian history are especially welcome. Applicants are invited to submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, teaching dossier, and the names and contact information of three references addressed to Dr. Norman Knowles, Dean of Arts and Science via e-mail to hr@stmu.ca.

St. Mary's University is a vibrant and growing undergraduate liberal arts and sciences teaching and research university located in the south of Calgary. We are dedicated to scholarship, teaching excellence, and the development of critical thinkers in the Catholic intellectual tradition. St. Mary's University hires on the basis of merit, is committed to diversity and employment equity, and encourages all qualified individuals to apply. We encourage applications from women, Indigenous persons, visible minorities, sexual minority groups, and persons with disabilities. Canadians and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.
